Dr. Robert Pierson served as a United Methodist pastor for 50 years, most recently as senior pastor of Christ UMC in Tulsa, OK for 37 years. During that time he led that mid-town congregation to grow from an average attendance of 200 to over 1,700. He was one of the founders of the Large Church Initiative, a fellowship of 3,000 larger United Methodist churches across the U.S. and he served for 15 years as chair of that organization.

He is currently serving as chairman of the Evangelism Committee and Natural Church Development Committee for the Oklahoma Annual Conference, executive director of Churches Uniting for Growth and Ministry - an ecumenical organization for leaders of larger churches that was founded by Dr. Robert H. Schuller in 1990, church relations director for Oklahoma Wesleyan University, and executive director of Leadership Nexus. #### Being a Good Samaritan Church

A practical, attainable way that really works & you can use it to reach new people and keep them as strong disciples & leaders.

Tell

How to share our faith in a practical and effective way in a highly secular culture that is loving and grace-centered, not arrogant & self-righteous
